

EESTI
KUNSTIAKADEEMIA

TALLINNA ÜLIKOOL

Euroopa Liit
Euroopa
Regionaalarengu Fond

Eesti
tuleviku heaks

SEMINAR

Writing in artistic (and autoethnographic) research

Venue: Estonian Academy of Music and Theatre, A207 and A211

Lecturer: Dr Hanna Guttorm (Helsinki Institute of Sustainability Science, University of Helsinki)

The course will share ideas and perspectives on practice-based and artistic research with attention to autoethnographic methods and writing. The students will work with short exercises in writing as a method of artistic research. The students will also have a possibility to share their writing experiences and get inspiration to make their own texts both personal and scientifically evocative. Master's and PhD students and their supervisors are welcome to attend the seminar.

PROGRAM:

Monday, 9 November

10.00–12.00 Lecture and discussion (room A207)

12.00–13.00 Lunch break

13.00–14.45 Workshop: individual writing exercises and discussions (room A211)

14.45–15.00 Coffee break

15.00–16.30 Workshop: collaborative writing exercises and discussions (room A211)

Tuesday, 10 November

10.00–12.00 Individual consultations for those doctoral students who need it or plan to use autoethnography in their research (A211)

13.00–15.00 Individual consultations (A211)

15.45–16.00 Coffee break

16.05–18.15 Seminar for everybody (A207)

Participation requires registration (you can find the registration link at ktkdk.edu.ee), registration deadline is 1 November 2020.

Contact: Aleksandra Dolgoplova, aleksandra@eamt.ee

This event is financed by the European Regional Development Fund (Estonian Academy of Music and Theatre ASTRA Project EMTASTRA).